They Called it "Dragon Land."

Greetings, magical adventurer. Long ago, beyond the Milky Way, there was a planet of great beauty and peace. It was called Dragon Land, after the strange and wondrous creatures that lived there. Today, however, invaders from another planet occupy this world and have destroyed all that was once good. Evil creatures rule the land. Danger waits at every turn. But now, one man will challenge these evil forces. It is you!

Armed only with an autolock energy launcher, you must save this beautiful land. Endowed with magical super powers, you face the enemy alone. But, ah, this is not the first time you have faced the impossible, is it? Your reputation precedes you, adventurer. For you are no common man, you are—the Space Harrier!

Playing Tips

When fighting the Boss Dragons, take a defensive approach. Let them fire at you before you move into position to take a shot at them. Also, move the second that the Dragons or any other enemy fires since they are shooting at the location you currently occupy, not the one you are moving to.

When you hop on the White Dragon in levels 5 and 12, try to demolish as many of the trees and other items on the landscape that you can. These are always counted as bonus points and they can spell the difference between victory and defeat!

Don't worry if you run into any of the brush or other small surface items. They won't damage you in any way, but you will trip and not be able to fight or maneuver for a couple of seconds, so watch out!

There is a secret way to continue up to three times in Space Harrier! Clear 5 stages, then, when you see the high score registration screen, enter 123456 and the initials "CNT"
